Jerry Hanson, Sioux City Community Development Director and Robert Moore, Sioux City Planning Division Manager discussed the Sioux City comprehensive plan. Their intent for this annexation plan as it affects the Plymouth County residents is not a matter of today, but a 30 year plan for the future. Greene asked about the voluntary vs. involuntary annexation of Plymouth County residents and the utilities provided by Sioux City into Plymouth County. Spies expressed his concern regarding the residents of Plymouth County along C80 and the zoning being changed from rural residential to commercial and he would like Sioux City to consider these residents before any zoning changes or annexation changes are made.

Sharleen Schotlman, a resident of Plymouth County, expressed her concern that the plan that Sioux City verbally expresses doesn't always match the written language in the compressive plan. She pointed out several paragraphs of language in the Sioux City written comprehensive plan that suggests to "aggressively pursue annexation". Schotlman asked the Board to act on behalf of the residents affected. Schotlman said the residents moved to this area of Plymouth County to live in rural Plymouth County and not live in Sioux City. She also expressed that her main concern involving the annexation is public safety if this area is zoned commercial and should commercial development arise.

Dennis Wolf, chairman of L.O.S.T. Advisory Board and Jim Kestner, L.O.S.T. Advisory Board secretary, represented the recommendations for 2005-2006 grants and the recommendations to modify the process of the L.O.S.T. Advisory Board for 2006-2007.

Henrich and Greene were appointed to meet with the three appointed L.O.S.T. Advisory Board member to discuss and modify the scoring process for next year. They will then bring the new process to the Board for approval.

Wolf explained the process of how they categorized and scored the applications to decide the recommendations.
